My College Roomie

- My College Roomie (MCR) is our roommate selection tool and resident student social network. MCR is a higher education social network aimed at improving the way Colleges and Universities match roommates for new students, with the intent of improving your college experience. We chose MCR because we look to offer new and innovative ways to maximize our student satisfaction and success. Each resident student will receive access to My College Roomie through their Carlow e-mail.
